

Richard Clarence Moore

August 4, 1940 - April 13, 2026

Richard Clarence Moore, age 85, of Springfield, Arkansas, passed away on Monday, April 13, 2026. He was born on August 4, 1940, in Wilmington, Delaware, the son of Frank B. Moore and Edith W. Potter Moore. He retired from Tyson after 25-plus years, raised cattle and chickens, and was always working. He slipped away with Joyce as much as possible to the auctions and enjoyed spending time with family on the farm.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Joyce Loraine Moore; daughters, Deborah (Troy) Hudson and Patricia Freeman, all of Arkansas; four grandchildren, Bryant (Anna) Epperson, Garrett Freeman, Rhett Hudson, and Lacey Strom; five great-grandchildren; siblings, Lela Jean (Richard) Clendaniel of Florida, Robert (Katy) Moore of Maryland, and Eleanor (Donald) Sadler of Maryland; and numerous nieces and nephews. Other than his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Frank Lee Moore; sister, Helen E. Logan; daughter, Sharon L. Epperson; and son, Richard C. Moore, Jr.

A funeral service will be at 10:00 a.m. Monday, April 20, at the Harris Chapel. Burial will follow at 2:00 p.m. at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Waldron, Arkansas. The family will receive friends one hour before the service, at the funeral home.

“ I'll never forget what a fun loving and laid back man Richard was. He believed in climbing off the tractor and hydrating with an ice cold beer, said it was better than water! I have a lot of good memories playing Golf (the card game) and dumping baby chickens. Every time I would help, even though I was small and a girl, he would say "Atta girl!" and pat me on the back and smile. He raised daughters and knew they could work hard. He was an amazing Pop Pop. So sorry to hear about his passing. I know he was so loved and will be so missed. You are all in our thoughts.
