“ Granny,
You will go to your grave with more love than most people will ever know in their life time. You will always be loved and remembered in our thoughts and hearts. Because of you, I have the greatest momma any daughter could ever ask for. You walked this earth as a strong, independent God fearing woman who was kind to strangers and cared deeply for your family... because of this, I am positive that you are in heaven smiling down on us. I love you Gran!

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. May the Lord hold you in His hands and carry you through this time and help you remain strong. Just remember all the goods times and know that Gran is with the Good Lord smiling down on you awaiting to be reunited in eternal life.

Momma T these heartfelt words were shared with me many years ago and they help me each and everyday and I know that they will help you as well.

I carry my mothers smile with me in everything I do, for everyday of my life, for her smile is soft as a rose petal, graceful as a butterfly gently gliding through the air, as gentle as a new born baby. My mothers smile could make you feel all the joy, happiness, warmth and love that ones heart couls stand. I share my mothers smile with you for I carry my mothers smile with me. My mothers smile can make you smile with a greatness, just take a look a look at my mothers smile, this wonderful smile rest upon my face, for I wear my mothers smile.

These words are originally from your heart, and I am so glad you shared them with me because they have help me so much with each year that passes the paper fades but the words are still there and fill my heart with love and joy each time I read them. I love you and just remember all the good times and that sassy attitude and look in the mirrior and there it is your mothers smile.
