“ Mrs Bengston, Laura, Tim & Bryan,

I am so sorry for your loss of Mr. Bengston. He was like a Father to all of us kids that ran around Deerwood in the "old days". I never will forget all those times we would be either at our house or yours working on something and he would be right there in the middle of it all, telling us what to do and where to put what. Such great times. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I remember the good 'ole days of Deerwood and all of the guys, Bob was always involved in our kid activities and got my vote as the coolest dad because he was always outside and around when we were playing football, whiffle ball or hoops. i think he was the one that souped up the twin seater gocart. God Bless all of you in your time of celebration of Mr Bob's life.
