“ Steve wanted to share a special memory with Punkin. One day Rob had come over to our house to pick Steve up at our house and bring him to Buffalo Church. When they arrived back to the church they looked out into Grandma Bettys field and he said there stood 6 of the biggest bucks. They both just stood there gawking at them for he said he guessed it was 30 minutes or more looking through a scope and admiring them . It was a wonderful memory Steve will always cherish. Rob was a good friend to both of us and he will be very much missed. I'll never forget the way he loved to rib our son James about all the boxes of chicken he found in our van one day and it was right where James set. Uncle Rob was a great guy and we will miss him .

“ One of the best friends I ever had, time and distance so often changes proximity but not the heart. Go rest now in the arms of your Savior!
