“ To all my wonderful cousins in this time of sorrow. Our deepest thoughts are with you and your families. I have such great memories of my Uncle George and Aunt Rosie, especially the time we had with them in all our visits to sandtown bottom. I remember the time I was out in the pasture with that horse and aunt Rosie was scared so bad she sent uncle George to get me. Such great momories. Love you all and always in my thoughts and prayers.

“ To all my wonderful cousins, Aunt Rosie was a wonderful Aunt. I will miss her. I will always remember the times we went to visit her and Uncle George. She is now at peace and up there taking care of those Tanner Men. Bless her heart. The family will be in my thoughts and prayers for the days ahead. Love to all. Debbie Oswald.

“ What a great legacy Aunt Rosie and Uncle George has left.... Such great memories of visiting them in Sand Town Bottoms, fighting and fussing with our cousins... Then playing until way after dark. Sitting around listening to stories told by all using a kerosene light to light the living room.

Words cannot express how I feel now and how sorry I am to see such a great person pass on. I realize she is in a much better place now, but she will be missed by all of us. My condolence's to my Cousins. God Bless you all and know our prayers are with you.
