

Roy Able

August 1, 1934 - September 7, 2022

Roy Able was born in August of 1934 in Heth, Arkansas to Gene and Eva Mae Able. He was an independent business man, “jack of all trades” but his favorite job of all his life was substitute teaching at Anne Watson Elementary School. He still has drawings children did for him. He served in the Air National Guard.

He is survived by his wife, Norma, daughter Debbie (David) Briscoe, son Gene Able, grandchildren Liz (Lanny) Johnson, Becky (Jason) James, Alecia Briscoe, and Keith Able. Great grandchildren Brandon (Kelli) Tidwell, Nicholas James, Blakely and Jeremiah Able, Jady, Chloe and Landon Johnson, Great great grandchildren Bentley and Kaden Tidwell, cousin and best friend Robbie (Karen) Howell and family.

He is preceded in death by his son Randall Able.

Roy had many hobbies. He loved hunting, fishing, camping, reading, spending time with family. He was always fixing and creating better ways to do things, so his pockets were never lacking shoe laces and rubber bands!

He loved God with all his heart. He mentored many people with his strong spiritual beliefs. He walked the walk and talked the talk when it came to his faith. He never wavered in his walk with God. When he found out his time was near he raised his hands and said “Thank you Lord!”
