“ Dear Mrs. Goodman, I am Billy Yarbrough's oldest daughter who used to live down the road from you. My sister Dawn, who goes to church with you, told me of Mr. Goodman's passing. I'm sorry for your loss, but I know you will see him again. It has been several years since I last visited with either of you, but I have such fond memories of stopping by your house on occasion for little neighborly things: exchanging vegetables, holiday greetings, and such. You and Mr. Goodman were always so sweet and kind to us. I will keep you in my prayers. May God continue to bless you. Love in Christ, Crystal Poe (Yarbrough)

“ Mrs. Goodman, I love you and Mr. Goodman so. You both were the best neighbors anyone could have asked for growing up. I remember coming to your house and just sitting and talking with you. I remember trick-or-treating you on Halloween and playing in the creek that runs through your yard. I am so sorry for your loss. The fact that you and Mr. Goodman would come to Sonic when I still worked there and encourage me to go out to Lonoke is one of the main reasons I have the great church family that I have now. You both have meant so much to me in my life, more than I think I could express, and more than I think either of you know. I wish I could say something to take your hurt away, but Mrs. Goodman, please know that I am thinking of you and praying for you. I have been since the day I heard the news. Thankfully, we know Mr. Goodman is well and perfect in heaven now with our Savior, and we will see him again one day. I love you Mrs. Goodman, with much condolences, Dawn Roch (Yarbrough)
