

Ruby Geneva Pyle

May 29, 1917 - January 2, 2018

Ruby Geneva Pyle, age 100, of Little Rock, Arkansas, formerly of Morrilton, passed away Tuesday, January 2, 2018. She was born on May 29, 1917, in Yellville, Arkansas, a daughter of the late C.D. Dillard and Elizabeth Williams Dillard. She was the widow of the late George A. Pyle, and was a hairdresser for many years. She was of the Christian faith and a member of the Downtown Church of Christ in Morrilton.

Ruby is survived by her daughter, Pat McVey Newman of Little Rock; her grandchildren, Robbie (Stan) Chapman of Little Rock, Jennifer (Mike) Shearer of Plano, Texas, Debbie (Bill) Fox of Fayetteville, Matthew Pyle of Coal Hill, and Jerye Marie McHenry of Kansas; twelve great grandchildren; eleven great-great grandchildren; and her brother, Joe (Lou) Dillard of Greenbrier. Other than her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by her son, Jerry Pyle; her granddaughter, Denise Pacht; and two sisters, Jane Rose and Ernestine Noeller.

Funeral services will be held at 10:00 a.m. Friday, January 5, 2018 at the Harris Chapel with Bro. Bruce Davenport and Bro. George Hulett officiating. Burial will be at DeSoto Cemetery near Yellville by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton.

Tribute Wall

“ Ruby Geneva Pyle

January 30, 2023 at 02:08 AM

“ I love and miss you ms pat.im sorry about your mothers passing.sending hugs your way.

terri hippensteel - June 29, 2018 at 05:18 PM