“ I was very sad to hear of Russell's passing. We kind of lost contact over the years, but I remember us living in Cherokee Courts when we were very young and all the good times we had. All my family has remained friends during the 40 years of knowing each other. We were next door neighbors for about 3 years and when both of our families moved we all remained good friends. Russell will be missed that's for sure. Condolences go out to his family, mother and brothers, Joyce Greene, Month and Bobby Meaders. I have done a lot of soul searching myself lately. I know Russell is in a better place though we will miss him until we see him again. Russell enjoy you crown and the mansion Jesus prepared for you. See you when its my time brother.
