“ *DR WESTERFIELD,
I AM TRULY SORRY TO HEAR OF YOUR MOTHERS DEATH,
LOSING YOUR MOTHER WAS, AND IS STILL ONE OF THE ULTIMATE CHALLENGES GOD GIVES US, I LOST MINE 5YRS
AGO, AND THERE ARE THINGS I WANT TO SAY EVERY DAY,
BUT GOD GIVES ME THE STRENGTH TO GO ON, I PRAY YOU,
AND YOUR FAMILY PEACE OF HEART AND FAMILY LOVE THAT WILL HELP THE PAIN OF LOSS
GOD BLESS ALL

“ Dominic, I can't begin to fathom the loss you must feel-you and Ruth were together virtually 24/7 for however many years it has been. Hopefully, that togetherness will also prove to be a solace for you with many, many memories of a life well-lived. I am glad Kimberly could come to be there for you, and I hope to see you again soon myself. Take care of yourself.

My most sincere condolences to Kathy, Bob, Margaret and Nita as well.

“ *Dear Santarones and family-
Poppa, I haven't stopped thinking of you since all of this began. I can't imagine how sad you must be, but I hope you find some comfort in your wonderful memories of Grandma. I will never forget how much Cameron took to her on his visit to Arkansas. Please take care of yourself, Poppa. I would also like to extend my sincere condolences to the rest of the family, as I know Grandma will be missed.*

Love, Michelle Cameron
