

Sally June France

June 7, 1934 - December 12, 2024

Sally June (Meaders) France, 90, of Birdtown, Ark., died Thursday, December 12, 2024, in Little Rock.

She was a retired administrative assistant; and a member of the First Baptist Church in Morrilton. She loved reading, dancing, talking on the phone and her family.

Sally was born June 7, 1934, in Center Ridge, Ark., to James Ivory and Maudie Pearl (Scroggin) Meaders.

She is survived by her stepsons, Mike France and wife Melinda of Birdtown, and Dave France of Wyoming; many nieces and nephews, and their children and grandchildren.

Sally was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Jim France; her daughter, Deborah Lynn Robinson.

Seven siblings -- Francis Norman, Betty Kindrick, Bill Meaders, Sula Polk, Shelby Meaders and James Meaders -- also preceded her in death.

There has to be a joyful reunion in Heaven with all of them together.

Visitation will begin at 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14, at Harris Funeral Chapel in Morrilton. Funeral services will begin at 2 p.m. The Rev. Jeff Crowder will officiate.

Burial will be at the Kilgore Cemetery in Birdtown.

The family gives heartfelt appreciation to Hospice Home Care of Conway and Little Rock for their compassion and loving care.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Kilgore Cemetery Fund, 1

Leman Jones Lane, Springfield, AR 72157; or to the Tribute of Life Foundation, 2200 S. Bowman Road, Suite A, Little Rock, AR 72211, online at www.tributeoflife.org.

“ Like clockwork you could expect a greeting from Sally every birthday and Christmas that came by. Such a sweet lady to me and my sisters, Anne and Mary. She and Mary were especially close, using the telephone as their medium for visiting. Rest in Peace my dear friend Sally. Em Sponer, Mary Taylor, & Anne Andrews; proud to be called your other sisters.
