“ I was so very sorry to hear about Uncle Sammy. He was such a kind, thoughtful Uncle and I watched over the years what a good husband and father he was. All of us Hayre descendants were lucky to be part of the Hayre family. Uncle Sammy was one of the "shining stars " of the family. My most sincere sympathy to you, Aunt Elinese, Sammy Jr. Billie Frank , Jerry Lynn and Karen. Love Linda and family

“ I join with so many others who knew Sam in offering our deepest sympathy on his passing. Although it is little consolation at this sad time, it should be of some satisfaction to know that in his passing you can celebrate the end of a very long and productive life.

The measure of a life well-lived is not in how much money one has or what possessions they have accumulated, but rather through the lives they touched and the sorrow they leave behind. If the outpouring of sympathy on his loss is any indication, and it most certainly is, you can proudly and confidently say that his indeed was a life well-lived.

May you find peace and comfort in knowing that his loss is felt by all who knew and loved him.
