“ Mrs. Sharon was my neighbor growing up and once a neighbor, always a neighbor. I remember the first time I met her, when her youngest was in diapers and I was in 6th grade. She was straightforward with what was on her mind which I appreciated. It's good to know where people stand and she stood as a good human. I always knew she and Jim were there if we needed them, especially when I had moved away and Mama lived alone. One of my memories of Mrs Sharon was when she quietly swept the floor and and cleaned the house when my Dad died. She knew what we needed and proceeded without fanfare. My sympathies and love to Jim, Ed, Kay and Terry.
