“ Danny, Jim, Greg & families, I just wanted to say that I've never been to a funeral quite like this one. Yes there were sad moments but, it was a rejoycing and a celebration of Sharons life. It was such a comfort to me and I pray that it was for you all as well. May God comfort and strengthen each of you in the days to come. You're in my thoughts and my prayers. Love, Tammy

“ A Poem For My Aunt:

*Always full of love,
She had a heart full of grace,
She always made you feel good,
And put a smile on your face,*

*Although we cannot see her,
It doesn't mean she is gone,
If we all pull together,
And remember to be strong,*

*We can cherish all the happy times,
Feel all her love,
Remember her for the woman she was,
And know she's watching from above,*

*She was part of all our lives,
That is plain to see,
I know that I'll never forget,
The joy she brought to me,*

*Be she your Mother,
Your Daughter, your Sister or your Aunt,
Embrace her soul,
And celebrate her life,*

*Hold on to your memories,
Keep her safe in your heart,
If you never forget her,
You'll never be apart.*

Aunt Sharon was always there for all of us. Always made me laugh! I never thought this day would come, I love her so much. I'm sorry she left us so soon. I love you Jim, greg, Danny & the rest of the family.

“ One of God's angels is sent home. Sharon will truly be missed by her family, grandkids, and friends, but she is in the heavenly kingdom with her heavenly father and earthly father rejoicing. I pray that you will find comfort in knowing that and hold each precious memory you have of her in your heart until you are one day reunited with her!!!! I love you all and will be here if you need me.
