“ Sherlin was such a special lady. We did so enjoy her being our Honorary Chair person this year for our survivor dinner for Relay for Life. She has fought a hard battle. I have enjoyed knowing her for what I feel like all my life. I loved Mrs. Mac, too. I know they were cut from the same cloth...both southern ladies. I offer condolences and my prayers to all her children and the other family members. I know she will be missed by all.

“ Sherlin's passing is so bittersweet. Bitter that such a wonderful woman has been taken away from us, but so sweet to know that she is no longer suffering and has gone home to be with the Lord. Our loss is Heaven's gain, and Sis. Sherlin, we will see you again some day!

“ I grieve for you, the family, for your loss, and I grieve for myself that I never took the time to visit with such a sweet person. I met Sherlin once at the newspaper office and always intended to visit with her more but procrastination won over. Our loss is heaven's gain with the homegoing of Ms. Simpson.
