

Sherman Wayne Mozingo

July 27, 1957 - September 20, 2020

Sherman Wayne Mozingo, age 63, of Plumerville, Arkansas, passed away Sunday, September 20, 2020. He was born July 27, 1957 in Tulsa, Oklahoma, a son of William Sherman Mozingo and the late Rosie Hiser. He was a cattle farmer and of the Christian faith. Sherman loved live music and riding his Harley. He was a quality engineer, loving son, husband, father, Poppy, and friend to many. He lived every day to the fullest, believed in working smart and playing hard.

He is survived by his father, William Sherman (Larae) Mozingo; wife, Mary Ann Jahr Mozingo; daughters, Kristen Mozingo, Kirby (Randy) Hayberg, Sarah (Chris) McAlister, and Holly (Vince) Thrift; sons, Kelly Mozingo and Jeremy (Melissa) Ayers; uncle Charles (Wanda) Mozingo; and 15 grandchildren. Other than his mother, he was preceded in death by his sister, Donna Kay Mozingo Howard.

Graveside service will be 2:00 p.m. Wednesday, September 23, at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery with Bro. Joe Hogan officiating. The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service under the pavilion.

“ Sherman was the best QA Engineer I have ever had the privilege of working with. He has been deeply missed and will never be forgotten, live in Gods peace my friend and brother. Prayers for his family that God will share his grace and compassion for your hearts, put your pain and loss in his hands as he will give you rest!!!
