

Shirley Ann Caudell

July 4, 1957 - November 16, 2019

Shirley Ann Caudell (Carter), 62, of Perryville, received her angel wings on November 16, 2019. She was born on July 4, 1957 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Shirley was a member of Journey Church in Perryville, Arkansas. She loved the Lord dearly. Everyone may not have known her by name but knew her by her infectious smile and her big ole hugs. Her loving soul shined through her eyes. Shirley truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures; visiting her kids as much as she could, chatting it up with friends and family, playing bunco, meeting friends for coffee, paint parties, and many trips to Eat My Catfish with her husband for his crawfish cravings. Shirley loved her friends as her own family and never met a stranger. Shirley was a hard worker. She was working at S&G Distributors for the past 30 years. She will greatly be missed by her coworkers and the company.

Shirley was preceded in death by her grandparents, Harvey and Faye Carithers, and her parents, Robert Carter and Sue Phillips. Shirley is survived by her husband, Anthony Caudell; her daughter, Kayla Caudell and her son, Michael Brunger; Sister, Tracy Carter Welfare (Richard); Brothers, Robert Carter and Casey Phillips; Mother in Law, Joyce Marie Rankin, who she was very close too, as well.

A memorial service will be held 2:00 p.m. Friday, November 22, at Journey Church in Perryville with Bro. Danny Barker officiating. Private burial will be at a later date.

“ Shirley, you were such a sweet, amazing, and caring person! I can't believe you're not here anymore. You I hooked me up with Angela for my hair for those several years and I spent a lot of time in your pool. RIL and hug your mom and if you have time, hug mine as well! You're definitely in a wonderful place. And you will be missed! RIP Angel 🙏

“ I am truly sorry for this great loss! She was a very dear friend and sister in Christ to me! She always gave me a huge hug and her smile was always present! We prayed together many times and had so many things in common! I will truly miss her so very much, my heart is broken but my spirit rejoices! She is in the arms of her savior and probably talking with her parents and my mom! I love you Shirley it want be long til we meet again! (Sending you one of those big ole hugs 😊)
