“ I visited Syble at the nursing home when we had a worship service. Always enjoyed being with her for a few minutes. God bless you in your loss, but not really a loss, a gain.

“ To all my Gilmore family. I am so sorry for your loss. I pray that each of you find peace and comfort during this sad time through all of your wonderful memories. Dad and I are truly saddened by your loss and would have been there for the services had we known. I know that she is in Heaven with Uncle Thurman and my Grandma and Grandpa. Love and blessings to all.
