“ Glennette, I attended Tech with you and graduated in Dec. '63. My first full time teaching position was 4th grade at Northside right next door to your mom. She was SO special to me and we have kept in touch all these years. I think the last Christmas card I got from her was about 3 or 4 years ago. She could write more information in one little space than anyone. She taught me probably more about teaching than I learned in college! She was so supportive of me and truly a wonderful mentor. I know how much she loved her family and was so proud of all her grandchildren. What a long fruitful live she lived. My sincere condolences to you and the family.

“ Please allow me to offer my sincere condolences to the family of Syble Long. I came across the recent notice of the passing of her sister, Anna, while researching my family's genealogy. It, in turn, led me to learn of Syble's passing, as well. While I did not know her personally, her picture speaks volumes about what a wonderful person she must have been. My thoughts and prayers include all of you. It is, indeed, a very small world. - Corinne (Hahn) Nystrom (granddaughter of Agnes Hentschel Jones' younger brother, William Reynold Hentschel)residing in Mesa, Arizona
