“ Sylvia was so kind to my mother during her fight with cancer. She would come to Mom's house and fix her hair to make her feel better. She actually did a sponge set on Mom four days before Mom passed away. We will never forget her sweet gentleness with Mom. That was 10 years ago. I know they are having quite the reunion. Prayers and condolences to all of her family, especially Terry. She was truly one of a kind.

“ Although we were miles apart, I will miss our phone calls and that sweet southern drawl. Dear cousin, say hello to Aunt Dot, Uncle MAC, Grandma and Grandpa, Aunt Georgia and my mom and dad for me. To her family, I send my deepest sympathy and pray you can live through the heartache and the loss. I hope there's BINGO in heaven!
