“ *My precious aunt Thelma lee. She could make me laugh even when I was down. Her laugh could fill the room with laughter. She was a great aunt, always had time for everyone. My cousins were like brother and sisters. My quality time leaves great memories of aunt Thelma lee which I loved very much. Billie, my sister says she sure will miss her hyper aunt Thelma lee. And loved so much. May God be with my cousins and family now that God has mom with him .

“ We are so sorry that me and the family could not be there with you. Ray and Betty tried to find you a couple of weeks ago but did not know how. We would a telephone number from someone if possible. Thelma Lee had already passed away before we know it. We would have at least attended the funeral if we had known. Our love and prayers are with you.
