“ Hi Sorry to hear about your Dad. We never knew until yesterday. I have a memory I would like to share. When we were young your parents visited Christopher Lake where Sid and Gert had a cottage. We were out by the beach and your Dad who had just finished a beer threw the can in the water. The look on Sid's face was hilarious. Then I saw your dad, who broke into a big smile as he knew he had really pulled a good one on Sid. For some reason that memory has survived the past 60 years. Your Dad had a great smile.
