“ tim i wanted to send a poem to u, i love and miss u soooooooooooooooooomuch, it's just not right walking through the living room and u not there any more, u were my husband and my life and i will always miss and love u, the kids all loved you so much, u were dad when they needed u, u will be missed alot. always and forever,we will meet again, here is the poem, I have only just lost you; the pain is hard to bear.

Do I have to go through life knowing you're not there?

Please, someone explain to me why you had to go.

Are there any reasons, I really need to know?

I sit here and remember all the lovely times we shared, the talks, the laughter, of everyone we cared.

I am told the pain will ease in time, !!!!

and I will think of you without a tear,

but that will be impossible as I need to have you here.

you was my very world, my ever-guiding star.

Just kiss me softly on the cheek and tell me you are near, i love u tim so much and miss u soooooooooooooooooomuch donna

“ When mom first said she had met you, I was so happy. You came into our life when we needed someone. You let Stoney, Zach, and me grow up with a dad. You let our kids have a grandpa. You cared for mom and you cared for granny. You never stopped caring. You taught me how to have a family and not to lose it. You helped make me smart. You were friends with all my friends. You and me were very similar, but you already know. One day we will watch football, basketball, wrestling, and BBQ together again. Thank you Tim, for loving Yoko and me. We love you. See you soon.
