“ I have fond memories of Tommy, but who doesn't? He was two or three years ahead of me in high school but we always got together when there was dancing. Tommy went to work for my dad after high school and was gracious enough to take me to the senior prom in '58. (I needed a date, you see.). My most precious memory of him was seeing him at my dad's funeral at England, ever thoughtful, kind. Thanks for the memories. Gay McCormick Horn

“ First time I ever met Tommy was on main street Lepanto when he called out to my husband by his first name - Tommy on one side of the street and we were on the other - never forgot this memory - laughed about it so many times and formed so many other precious memories. Thanks for being a part of Ray's life and mine. Praying for peace and comfort for the family.
