

Travis Lamar Howell

October 19, 1976 - February 9, 2022

Travis Lamar Howell, age 45, of Plumerville, Arkansas, passed away on Wednesday, February 9, 2022. He was born October 19, 1976, in Huntsville, Arkansas, the son of Harley Howell and Mary Stewart (Ronnie) Maggard. He was a heavy equipment operator for the Department of Sanitation in Conway, a member of the Faith Assembly of God in Plumerville, a basketball coach, and an avid hunter. He loved helping with his daughter, Aleigha's softball practices and his son, Levi's football practices.

He is survived by his wife, Latesha Crawford Howell of Plumerville; children, Austin Howell of Perryville, Tristan Howell of Plumerville, Aleigha Howell of Plumerville, and Levi Howell of Plumerville; father, Harley Howell of Conway; mother and stepfather, Mary (Ronnie) Maggard of Springdale; siblings, Tory Howell, Angela Howell, Nicholas Howell, and Andy Maggard; and a slew of adopted children. He was preceded in death by his brother, Shawn Maggard and his sister, Tina Maggard.

Funeral services will be 10:00 a.m. Monday, February 14, at the Faith Assembly of God with Pastor Doug McClure officiating. Burial will be at Plumerville Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Sunday, at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Strikers Softball Organization - 21 Brents Road Oppelo, Arkansas 72110.

“ Our condolences to the Howell family. It seems our souls & God make decision at times. The timing of God recruiting his soldier's to make his army stronger is something we can't chose. But Travis chose to serve his God on earth & now he will serve in greater a presence thru Eternity. Sorry for your loss
