

Verna Bridgman O'Neal

October 4, 1942 - February 10, 2024

Verna Bridgman O'Neal, 81, of Hot Springs Village, went to be with her Lord and Savior February 10, 2024. She was born in Solgohachia, Arkansas on October 4, 1942, the daughter of the late Willis and Ina Bridgman..

She is preceded in death by her husband, Wayland O'Neal; four brothers: Sherman, Herman, Thurman and Junior; two sisters: Betty Swope and Sandra Stephens.

She is survived by one sister, Linda Hague, Hot Springs Village; stepson, Ty O'Neal of Frisco, Texas; companion and caregiver Bob Wilson, Hot Springs Village; several nieces and nephews.

Verna graduated from Morrilton High School. After graduation, she attended East Texas Baptist College in Marshall, Texas for two years.

She worked for Mobil Oil Co., Dallas, Texas from 1974 until her retirement in 1999. She moved to Hot Springs Village in 2009.

Her hobbies and special interests were playing bridge and golf. She loved to travel. Her favorite places were the Grand Tetons, Yellowstone and Glacier National Park. She traveled to Hawaii, London, England; throughout the Caribbean on cruises; Bermuda; Canada, Dominican Republic; and most of the United States.

Verna lived a full life of love and laughter in spite of a long battle with heart disease and cancer. She was a blessing to all those who interacted with her, not only for the wisdom she would offer, but also for the comfort she brought into their lives. She was loved by many and will be missed by all who were blessed to know her.

Memorial services will be 1:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 5, at Harris Funeral Home. Arrangements are by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton. Her family requests memorial contributions be made in her honor to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.
