“ I remember Vina Lee from school days (1940's '50's) onward. A real lady with high moral standards and a strong relationship with Almighty God through His Son Jesus Christ. A Proverbs 31 type woman, thrift being one of many good virtues she possessed. In our cotton mill days she sold "Grit" newspapers. I bought one from her on a regular basis. Through her good deeds she lives on....." (he/she) being dead yet speaketh 'Hebrews 11:4)" So, whether here or there, or in the air, we'll meet again at the feet of JESUS!
