“ Virginia was an excellent basketball player. Such a tiny person to play with such a great heart. We started school together at Houston Grade School and also attended Bigelow High School together. When both our moms had late babies at home the same year, we spent the night in the other's home while trying to take care of the younger siblings. Our world is a much poorer place without Virginia.

“ So sorry to hear of your loss, prayers for comfort during this sad time. Just remember she will be in heaven rejoicing, she was an angel here on earth, and now she has her wings. I have such sweet memories of the days at Fellowship Tabernacle, growing up with her as being such a great role model. She loved life and loved her family. God Bless.
