“ Dear Billie Jean and family, We send our sincere sympathies in the passing of your mother. A mother's love is unconditional and pictures a much greater love from above. From experience we know you will miss her very much but we pray that God will fill that vacant space with His wondrous peace. Our Love and prayers to all of you.

“ You could always count on Aunt Vide to be there. She was just one of those people you knew would help out with whatever you needed. However, she was not afraid to speak her mind about things. She smiled a lot and was so kind to me and mine.
