“ Charles and Family, want to send our love to you guys. Ms. Wanda will be missed tremendously. Loved visiting with her at the nursing home, as usual, there was NEVER a dull moment with her. Although she will be missed, we all know she's in a much better place and we can see her again. Love you all.

“ Children remember the people who were a positive influence in their lives. Wanda was for me. I will always carry her love and kindness with me. I know that my Mother must be rejoicing at the sight of her in Heaven. My prayers are with you.

“ Sister Wanda is going to be missed greatly by everyone that knew her. She was a very faithful lady and loved to sing. Every time we had a chance to ask her to sing she was always ready with a song. We only had the opportunity to know her for about six short years, but she gave us so much encouragement in our walk with the Lord. She was such an inspiration to our lives and the many that knew her. We loved her so much. Our tears are for the sadness of not seeing her anymore, but also tears of joy because we know in our hearts that she is rejoicing in heaven with others that have gone on before her. Our goal is to meet her there ourselves, and walk on them streets of gold with a brand new body. Our prayers go out to the family. She always asked us to pray for her family and we will continue to do so. God be with Charles and the rest of the family.
