“ I didn't get to meet you but I was lucky enough to watch you grow in your mommy's belly. I know you're going to be watching over all of us and more importantly your mommy and your daddy and your big brother. They all love you so so so very much. Auntie loves you. Your cousin would've had so much fun with you. I hope you're living a wonderful happy life with Jesus with no pain. Dance with the angles baby boy and keep your family safe.
