“ Geraldeen, I'm so very sorry, I went on line to see if my condolence went thru and read of your sweet "Bill". My heart breaks for you losing your mom and now Bill so close together, but have to realize God's timing is perfect. (even though we don't always understand} I'm sorry I want be able to be at the service, but know I will be lifting you and family up in prayer. Mr. Bill had such a sweet personality and loved you so much. Cherish the wonderful memories the two of you made through the years knowing you will be reunited in heaven some day. Our thoughts and prayers, Kathy and Ken Taylor ---- Psalm 121----

“ It hurts my heart to know that you are going through losing your mother as well as losing our beloved PawPaw. I know I didn't visit that often, but it's still hard to believe that he's gone. I'll never forget the times me and him had our talks while he sat in his recliner looking out the window or when me and Jason were kids running around wild driving him crazy. He was dear to my heart and I loved him very much. Not a day will go by without him on my mind. I love you too, and I hope you're staying strong through this very difficult time. MawMaw, you are in my thoughts and prayers.
