“ *Though I didn't know Bill, I felt I did through conversations with his sister, Annette. It was clear that family was very important to the two of them.
Wishing that sweet memories of Bill will give comfort to all who love him.*

“ I only knew Bill through phone conversations I had with him and his sister, Annette. He called Annette almost every day: as he said “Hi sis” one could feel the love that Annette and Bill had for each other as only a brother and sister could have... I loved listening to his deep southern drawl! He will never be forgotten! Rest in peace Bill!

So sad Sherry that you was never mentioned after being his wife for 38 years, last time I saw him was at my Daddy's funeral in December 2022 and he was the same ole Bill I had known all these years! Love you!
