“ Mrs Tucker made the best biscuits! I would go home with them after school. There would be biscuits leftover from breakfast. We would eat the leftover, with ketchup, mustard, any thing they were so good. Deborah had to fight me when she made the biscuits for supper, I was always bugging her for some dough. She would fuss and tell me no, they were for supper!

Mrs Tucker will be missed. She was always so upbeat and smiling. I would go see her at the nursing home, she would seem so happy to see me. I love this whole family!

“ we are saddened for Ms. Tuckers' family, but not for her. She has gone home to that which was prepared just for her. A home like no other, beyond what we can even imagine. Prayers for all of you.
